

Great Lakes Talking Books

Materials for the Blind and Physically Handicapped

<http://greatlaketalkingbooks.org/>

All Michigan Residents who cannot see or read regular print due to a physical disability are eligible to receive free reading materials. There is no charge for the services, not even a cost to mail materials to and from the library.

This program is made possible by the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Applications are available through the Great Lakes Talking Books website or at your local library! For more information, you can stop by the Dickinson County Library or Branches to pick up an application!
