Atkinson, secretary of the company, became the first postmaster on March 12, 1892; the office was closed on Oct. 14, 1905, and the village is now farmland; when the new township was organized in 1892, it was named for the same Mr. Atkinson.

Cummings, William J. and Curtis, David, Three Historic Home Walking Paths in Iron Mountain, Iron Mountain, Michigan: Mid-Peninsula Library Cooperative, 1979, 10 pages, paper booklet

(In 1882, Leonora Schumacher Crowell came to the booming mining town of Iron Mountain as the new bride of J. Addison Crowell, M.D. Mrs. Crowell was twenty-three years old when she arrived from the east and her husband was twenty-eight. Over the next five years Mrs. Crowell wrote regularly to a younger sister in Rahway, New Jersey, and it is through these letters that we learn about her, the doctor, and the pioneer community of Iron Mountain.)

(This booklet is a diary, an account of the experiences of George Seibert, an Iron Mountain pioneer. Written during his early years, it describes a trip made from Menominee to Vulcan. He gives a picture of the region, a glimpse of the life of the early settlers, the topography of the land, the hardships of the journey. The biography of Mr. Seibert was written by his grandson, Dr. George Fisher, a prominent physician of Detroit.)
