--Teens and adults will get to make their own gothic gardens! Into all things dark and spooky? Stop by to make your own graveyard garden using puffy paint, stencils, glow tattoos, and miniatures.

Little Senses Playgroup: Thursday, October 23rd at the Main Branch from 10:30-11:30 AM.

-- Join us for Little Senses Playgroup, perfect for little hands to explore! Every month, we'll have different stations designed to engage your child's senses with fun activities like tactile bins, sensory bottles, fine motor activities and early literacy activities. This is a special time for young children to discover and play at their own pace, though we do ask that an adult stays to supervise. While this event is ideal for ages 0-4, older siblings are welcome too!

Children's Room at Main Branch: CLOSED FOR BROWSING 12:00 PM 10/23 – 10/27

--The childrens room will be closed for browsing as we prepare for Ghoulie Glowing Golfing. Staff will be able to assist you in retrieving items for checkout.

Ghoulie Glowing Golfing: Saturday, October 25th at the Main Branch from 12:00-3:00 PM.

--ALL AGES are encouraged to stop by the library during the DDA's Pumpkin Walk for Ghoulie Glowing Golfing. The library's children's room will be blacked out for glow-in-the-dark, Halloween-themed, mini golf, ring toss, and cornhole. The rest of the library will be transformed with glow-in-the-dark activities and crafts.

The ghouls will be hiding out in the book stacks for kids to walk around and hunt them down. Participants may grab a pair of headphones to listen to Halloween themed music while they golf and play.

Gamers' Club: Tuesday, October 28th at the North Dickinson Branch from 3:15-4:00 PM.

-- This program is a great after school activity for kids in grades 3-8. Stop in and play your favorite video games and board games! Games such as Mario Kart, Super Smash Bros., and Minecaft will be available!

Death and Lighthouses on the Great Lakes: Tuesday, October 28th at the Main Branch from 6:00-7:30 PM.

--Are you a true crime junkie? This program is for you! Adults and teens will learn about the dangers and ghost stories of lighthouses on the Great Lakes. Losing one's life while tending to a lighthouse wasn't such an unusual occurrence. More than a dozen keepers met their maker at the hands of others – by fire, poisoning, bludgeoning and other unknown means. Join author Diana Stampfler as she shares details of these true crime stories. Copies of her book will be available for purchase and signing after the program.

Bow Wows and Books: Wednesday, October 29th at the Solomonson Branch from 5:00-6:00 PM. Required registration opens October 22nd; call 563-8617.

-- Patrons of all ages are invited to read to therapy dogs, Azul and Belle. Time slots are limited to 15 minutes each.

Forest Friends Storytime Sessions!

Ages 0-5 are welcome to join us on a journey into the forest! Through singing, dancing, and storytelling, your littles will meet furry friends and adventure in the woods! Storytimes build early literacy, communication, and fine motor skills. Don't miss out!
